

INSTITUTIONAL INFORMATION

PURDUE GLOBAL™

Institutional Information

Institutions participating in the Title IV federal financial aid programs are required to provide consumer information to help students make informed decisions about their education. This document provides a comprehensive location for links to important information about Purdue University Global. The document adheres to the requirements dictated under the Higher Education Opportunity Act and other legislation.

The financial aid administrator (FAA) is the designated official at the University for consumer information, and students or parents with questions should not hesitate to contact the FAA by simply calling the University's main number, located on the University's website, and asking to be connected to the Student Finance Office. Students (or parents) may obtain a copy of the Consumer Information disclosures by requesting a paper copy by contacting the Admissions or Student Finance Office.
