COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Nicole Hicks
Master of Science in Psychology, Class of 2021

Nicole Hicks graduated from Purdue Global in 2021 with a Master of Science in Psychology. She is a School Behavioral Health Professional with the School District of Palm Beach County, Florida, and the founder of Rays of Behavior Consulting LLC. She is an ambitious and multitalented behavior analytic professional known for successfully developing, executing, and spearheading programming to meet individual needs.

Nicole has dedicated her career to supporting individuals with autism, developmental delays, and severe behavioral challenges, providing a whole-person approach to services regardless of diagnosis. Her passion lies in bridging mental health and applied behavior analysis to create a well-rounded approach to achieving meaningful behavior change.

Nicole has presented at both the Broward County United Way Mental Health Conference and the Palm Beach Schools Conference for Mental and Behavioral Health, where she continues to advocate for the positive advancement of applied behavior analysis. Through interactive and hands-on activities, she teaches professionals how to support their students by meeting them where they are.

Nicole comes from a long line of educated women, two of whom were employees and are alumni of the University. Growing up, education was a priority and nonnegotiable when it came to navigating life. With a deep appreciation for its importance, she earned a bachelor's degree in psychology before pursuing her master's degree at Purdue Global. With a family history rooted in military service, including her grandmother's 22-year service in the Air Force, Nicole also has a deep appreciation for the sacrifices made not only by her family members but by all servicemembers.

After her family experienced two generations of teen motherhood, Nicole has worked to assist others in not letting the pressures and expectations of life dictate how life is lived. With a nontraditional timeline of her own, Nicole knows first-hand how easily one can feel defeated by life's roadblocks. Now, she focuses on helping others use mindfulness, self-awareness, and emotional intelligence to navigate and overcome these "milestone crises." Not allowing anything to box her in, Nicole merges evidence-based research and psychological techniques to help others discover and embody their true authentic selves.

Nicole currently resides in South Florida with her husband and three kids and enjoys cooking, going to the beach, being near the water, and crafting. She has a love for writing and enjoys romantic comedies. When Nicole was younger, she used her imagination to create stories and still uses her creativity today to develop personalized interactive digital materials for education, counseling, behavior management, and personal development. Her lifelong goals are to help others better themselves and create a self-sustaining lifestyle for her family.

HISTORY AND TRADITIONS

The Mace

Purdue Global commencements begin with the entrance of the University mace. The mace first appeared at the May 2022 commencement in Indiana. It was constructed by Michael Lorenz, Purdue Global Vice President of Strategy & Academic Operations and Registrar.

The mace consists of 18 segments, representing Purdue Global's founding in 2018. It is made entirely from locally sourced woods, symbolizing the University's Indiana heritage. One section is composed of layers of different woods, evoking the diversity of students, faculty, and staff that is a hallmark of the institution and its mission. Three pieces of the current mace are refurbished from the previous mace, a reminder of Purdue Global's legacy, which traces its roots to the American Institute of Commerce, a postsecondary school that opened in 1937 to provide training for underserved job seekers in a nation still reeling from the Great Depression.

The tradition of the mace originates from medieval times, when it was carried by bishops into battle as a protective device; later, it was carried by bodyguards of kings and others of high rank. Legislative bodies then adopted the ceremonial mace as part of the pomp and circumstance associated with the beginning of meetings. Today, many universities carry a mace to symbolize the importance of commencement and as acknowledgement of the academic process.

Legend of the Boilermaker

An 18-foot, 5,400-pound bronze statue that celebrates the lore and legend of the Purdue Boilermakers now stands next to Ross-Ade Stadium with an inscription that reads: The year was 1891. A college known for its proud heritage of educating the sons and daughters of the working class began to dominate opponents in football. After a 44-0 thrashing of Wabash College, a headline writer provided inspiration for a most unique nickname. 'Wabash Snowed Completely Under by the Burly Boiler Makers from Purdue' chronicled a victory by the 'Herculean wearers of the black and old gold.' Never intended as a compliment, the insult appealed to the students of the day. The indomitable spirit of the boilermaker is embodied in the tireless laborer you see before you.

Boilermaker Special

The locomotive design of Purdue's official mascot celebrates the University's renowned engineering programs. The first Boilermaker Special was presented in September 1940 and is often used to announce campus events.

Purdue Pete

Pete's story began in 1940 when University BookStore hired California artist Art Evans to draw a logo. The grinning, muscular icon reflected a boilermaker tradesman with a mallet for molding steel and hat to keep grease out of his hair.

In 1944, the logo was introduced as Boilermaker Pete, in Purdue's Debris yearbook, and on September 28, 1956, Purdue Pete made his first appearance at a pep rally before Purdue played Missouri, when student Larry Brumbaugh (ME'57) donned foam rubber padding, football shoulder pads, long black pants, a sweater with a P, and a papier-mâché head.
