Aron A. Lee

Purdue University Global Alumnus, Class of 2021

Aron A. Lee graduated summa cum laude from Purdue University Global in June 2021, earning a Bachelor of Science in Health and Wellness.

Aron was born in Madrid, Spain, and is a master sergeant in the United States Air Force, having served for 22 years. On December 1, 2022, he will retire and use his life skills and experiences to be a positive influence in training youth in one of Texas' educational systems.

Aron has been married to his wife, Sonya Lee, for 19 years and they have one child together, Kennedy M.A. Lee, who is the heart and soul of their lives.

Aron is a spoken word artist, photographer, personal trainer, and published author. He has performed poetry all over the world including Japan, Germany, Abu Dhabi, and Dubai. As a photographer, Aron has worked with several magazines and also had the opportunity to take part in a photography shoot for Paris Hilton.

Aron describes himself as an achiever; when he puts his mind to something, he does everything in his power to reach that goal. His positivity and perseverance are among his key character traits. Aron is a mediator to those who seek resolutions and an encourager to those needing support. ## THE MACE

The mace was originally a medieval weapon that was carried by bishops of the church into battle as a protective device. After more than 900 years, a ceremonial mace continues to be designed in a shape similar to a club, commemorating its very early use.

In later times, the mace was carried by sergeants-at-arms who were bodyguards of kings and others of high rank. Both Richard I of England and Phillip II of France ordered their sergeant-at-arms to carry a ceremonial mace. Legislative bodies such as the English Parliament also adopted the ceremonial mace as part of the pomp and circumstance associated with opening the meeting of the body.

As universities developed during this same period, they too adopted the mace for use in academic processions. Today, the mace is carried by the Macebearer who leads the platform party, which includes the University Chancellor and other dignitaries, onto the stage for the graduation ceremony.

Throughout history, special craftsmen were presented with the task of decorating the mace so it carefully embodied the history, traditions, and symbols of the academic institution.

PURDUE UNIVERSITY CAMPUS TRADITIONS

Legend of the Boilemaker

An 18-foot, 5,400-pound bronze statue that celebrates the lore and legend of the Purdue Boilermakers now stands next to Ross-Ade Stadium with an inscription that reads: "The year was 1891. A college known for its proud heritage of educating the sons and daughters of the working class began to dominate opponents in football. After a 44-0 thrashing of Wabash College, a headline writer provided inspiration for a most unique nickname. 'Wabash Snowed Completely Under by the Burly Boiler Makers from Purdue' chronicled a victory by the 'Herculean wearers of the black and old gold.' Never intended as a compliment, the insult appealed to the students of the day. The indomitable spirit of the boilermaker is embodied in the tireless laborer you see before you."

Boilemaker Special

The locomotive design of Purdue's official mascot celebrates the University's renowned engineering programs. The first Boilemaker Special was presented in September 1940 and has been used to announce campus events ever since.

BOILER UP!

"Boiler Up!" is used as "Go Purdue" or as "Cheer Up!" Students also use it to greet each other and to cheer in football games.

This phrase was partly a creation of former football coach Joe Tiller, who led Purdue's football team through one of the most successful periods of Purdue football history from 1997 through 2008. But before coaching at Purdue, he had coached at the University of Wyoming, also known as the Cowboys. During his time at the University of Wyoming, Joe Tiller used the phrase "Cowboy Up" to cheer up his players. When he started working at Purdue, he wanted a similar phrase to use with the Boilermakers. Therefore, Joe Tiller and his wife, Arnett Tiller, came up with the phrase "Boiler Up."

However, coincidentally, a very similar phrase has been used decades ago in steam-powered locomotives. When the coal box was hot enough and the engine was ready to go, the fireman would yell "Boiler's Up!" to let the locomotive engineer and the conductor know the boiler was ready.

"HAIL PURDUE!"

"Hail Purdue" is Purdue's official fight song. The song was composed in 1912 by Edward Wotawa (music) and James Morrison (lyrics).

The Hail Purdue Wall

The Hail Purdue Wall was installed in the fall of 2014 to commemorate the song's 100th anniversary. Constructed using glass and brick, the wall is consistent with the rest of the red brick campus architecture. It was decided that the words would be etched onto glass to allow one to see the fight song with the "scenes of Old Purdue" behind it. The wall was placed near Elliott Hall of Music.

Purdue Pete

Pete's story began in 1940 when University Book Store hired California artist Art Evans to draw a logo. The grinning, muscular icon reflected a boilermaker tradesman with a mallet for molding steel and hat to keep grease out of his hair.

In 1944, the logo jumped from retail to academe, starring in Purdue's Debris yearbook. "Introducing Boilermaker Pete," wearing a home economics apron among them.

Pete moved from page to personhood on Sept. 28, 1956, at a pep rally before Purdue played Missouri, when student Larry Brumbaugh (ME'57) donned foam rubber padding, football shoulder pads, long black pants, sweater with a P, and a papier-mâché head.

Big Bass Drum

Known as the "world's largest drum," it stands 10 feet tall on its field carriage and is handled by a crew of four band members with two beaters. The drum draws attention wherever it goes from fans who want their picture taken with the instrument. It still has its original 1921 frame, which is eight feet in diameter and nearly four feet between its two heads.

Old Oaken Bucket

In 1925, Dr. Clarence Jones, Indiana University alum, and Russel Gray, Purdue University alum, were given the task of finding a suitable trophy to represent the rivalry between the two schools. They traveled across the state in search of "the most typical Hoosier form of trophy." Jones and Gray came across Bruner Farm, where a bucket hung from a well. They brought the bucket back with them and restored it. George Ade, representing Purdue, and Harry Kurrie, representing Indiana, presented the Old Oaken Bucket trophy to President Bryan, of Indiana University, and Dr. Elliott, of Purdue University, at Ross-Ade Stadium, in the 1925 game. Ironically, the 1925 game ended in a 0-0 tie. The bronze block "IP" was linked to the trophy to signify the tie. As of 2019, Purdue leads the services 74-42-6.
